

The Ladies Meet, Too

CPYRGHT

Parliamentarians Take Recess

DELEGATES to the NATO Parliamentarians Conference had a social side to their agenda yesterday, with two dinners on Embassy Row and a luncheon for the ladies at the Capitol.

Paul-Henri Spaak, NATO Secretary-General, was the honor guest at the 8 p. m. party given by Belgian Ambassador and Mme. Louis Scheyven at their home on Foxhall rd.

Two ranking members of the Greek delegation—Gregory Kasimatis and Aristidis Kalantzakos—were honored at the dinner given by Greek Ambassador and Mme. Alexis Liatis at their Embassy on Massachusetts ave.

Others entertained by Envoy and Mme. Liatis, in addition to Mme. Kasimatis, were CIA Director George V. Allen, former U. S. Ambassador to Athens, and Mrs. Allen; Deputy Assistant Secretary of State and Mrs. Parker Hart, John O'Bell, deputy coordinator of Mutual Security, and Mrs. O'Bell; Hart Perry of the Development Loan Fund, and Mrs. Perry; Mr. and Mrs. Edward DePury, Mrs. George Denby and the Greek First Secretary and Mme. Constantine Panayotacos.

JOINT HOSTESSES at a luncheon at the Capitol for wives of delegates were Mrs. Alexander Wiley, wife of Sen. Wiley, and Mrs. Wayne L. Hays, whose husband, Rep. Hays, heads the House of Representatives group to the conference.

From the United States group were Mrs. Alan Bible, wife of the Senator; as well as Mrs. Robert R. Barry, Mrs. Robert J. Corbett, Mrs. Peter Frelinghuysen Jr. and Mrs. Frank E. Smith, all wives of Representatives. Present, too, was Mrs. Frank Karsten, whose husband is attached to the American delegation.